From The Black African Man to The Black African Woman!

The ultimate redemption of BlacAfrican People, their cultures, and their institutions can never be securely possible without the total manageable ingenuity of the BlacAfrican Woman. Because, it is from the BlacAfrican Woman that a Nation emerges. Because, it is from the BlacAfrican Woman that the BlacAfrican King emerges.

Because, it is from the BlacAfrican Woman that a compromising solution emerges. Therefore, the BlacAfrican Woman must not be viewed as a patronizing philanthropist, but as a full frontline architect of BlacAfrican Nation's redemption from the evils of the universe.
