

BLACOLOGICAL RESPECT CHART

These are the things that need to be done to give respect back to BlacPeople. BlacPeople are a particular people with a particular problem due to the process of enslavement, captivity, and white supremacy racism. In order to respect BlacPeople and yourself as a BlacPerson, you must be aware and practice these things daily. No matter what you do or the job you have, if you do not respect BlacPeople they will not respect you and they will know it.

- 1. Do not treat Eurological and Arabic Religions as Superior to BlacAfrican Spirituality.
- 2. Do not think that Eurological and Arabic names are better than BlacAfrican names. Know the difference between Eurological, Arabic and BlacAfrican names. If you do not know, ask.
- 3. Do not think that light skinned BlacPeople are better than dark skinned BlacPeople.
- 4. Do not think that light skinned BlacPeople are more intelligent than dark skinned BlacPeople. Stop making jokes about dark skin BlacPeople so white people can laugh.
- 5. Do not think that bi-racial or multi-racial people are better than BlacPeople.
- 6. Do not judge BlacPeople based on a white or Eurological standard of beauty.
- 7. Do not think that you and all BlacPeople are inferior.
- 8. Treat other BlacPeople the way you wanted to be treated.
- 9. Respect older BlacPeople. They are our elders and they will respect you.
- 10. When you make it as a BlacPerson, go back and help your Brathaz, Sistaz Mamaz, Fathaz, families, and community.
- 11. Do not think that Eurological hair is better than BlacAfrican hair.
- 12. Do not think that straightening your hair is better than natural BlacAfrican hair.
- 13. Do not think that Eurological language arts is better than BlacAfrican language and linguistics. European attire.

BLACOLOGICAL RESPECT CHART

- 14. Stop celebrating BlacAfrican holidays and BlacHistory month in European attire.
- 15. Do not apologize for being Black.
- 16. Do not say I happen to be Black.
- 17. Do not say that being married to another race of people is better than being married to BlacPeople.
- 18. Do not call BlacPeople n-i-g-g-e-r or n-i-g-g-a. We must eliminate from our hearts, minds, souls, and mouths these words:
n-i-g-g-e-r n-i-g-g-a n-i-g-g-a-s
my n-i-g-g-e-r
that n-i-g-g-e-r or n-i-g-g-a... is bad
Do not use the word “negro” in place of any of the above words in a disrespectful way. Do not use the above words to give praise or to show appreciation to BlacPeople, you will confuse BlacChildren and yourself.
- 19. Do not think that Eurological culture and holidays are more important than BlacAfrican culture and holidays, Buy African attire and wear it on BlacHolidays or your birthday.
- 20. If you say you are African, BlacAfrican, or African-American and do not have any BlacAfrican attire, buy some and wear it on BlacHolidays.
- 21. Do not think that that being politically correct is to put Black Issues on the back burner.
- 22. Do not think that it is okay to tell BlacPeople not to vote for BlacPeople.
- 23. Do not talk about the negative things that BlacMen do and never say the negative things that the BlacWoman do.
- 24. Do not say that vice is BlacCulture.

BLACOLOGICAL RESPECT CHART

- 25. Stop blaming the BlacMan for all that is wrong with BlacPeople.
- 26. Stop making excuses for BlacWoman when they are wrong or make bad decisions.
- 27. Do not treat all BlacPeople bad because you had a problem with one or some.
- 28. Do not treat all BlacBusinesses bad because you had a problem with one or some.
- 29. Stop making everything more important than the BlacFamily.
- 30. Stop letting making money be more important than BlacPeople.
- 31. Stop exploiting other BlacPeople for personal gains.
- 32. When a BlacMan is doing the right thing get out of his way and/or help him out.
- 33. We must learn to respect the wisdom of BlacZchalaz, their research and study for the justice, redemption, advancement of BlacPeople and redevelopment of BlacAfrican Culture.
- 34. Respect the traditions of BlacCulture and know what they are.
- 35. BlacPeople: Stop believing in a white Jesus and white God.
- 36. BlacPeople stop wasting all your money on a good time.
- 37. BlacPeople trust and believe in each other.
- 38. BlacPeople stop killing BlacPeople.
- 39. Blacologically speaking, don't let anybody define who you are, you must define who you are.
- 40. Know that BlacPeople have a responsibility and an obligation to cultural morality. The need to redevelop their culture for the next generation is theirs and that means you too.
- 41. BlacPeople: Have appreciation for your own culture.

BLACOLOGICAL RESPECT CHART

- 42. BlacPeople: Stop thinking just because you are Black, you know BlacCulture, when you have never studied it nor practiced it.
- 43. BlacPeople stop thinking that vice is culture.
- 44. STOP saying get out of the hood and build the hood up. Brathaz and Sistaz: Pull your pans up.
- 45. Stop choosing White institutions over Black institutions. This is institutional racism and the practice of Racism/White supremacy.
- 46. Stop under devaluing, under Estimating, and Marginalizing BlacPeople.
- 47. Stop mimicking, assimilating and emulating white people.
- 48. Stop believing Eurological Studies are better than those founded by BlacZchalaz.
- 49. Do not present your self as a BlacPerson because you have some Black DNA or a BlacPerson in your genealogy. When you don't stand for or love BlacPeople and the redevelopment of BlacAfrican Culture.
- 50. Know that the responsibility of the redevelopment of BlacAfrican Culture is solely that of every BlacPerson including you.
- 51. Stop using gender issue or sexual preference to divide BlacPeople.
- 52. Stop thinking that your individualism is greater than the multitude of BlacPeople.
- 53. Stop thinking that BlacPeople don't have any Ntelajnz.
- 54. Do not think that being an African-American is better than being BlacPeople.
- 55. Stop telling other BlacPeople to go back to Africa.